

Praises and Prayer Requests for May 31 - Pentecost

Praises for:

Pentecost: the receiving of God's Holy Spirit in life-giving, life-changing ways

Graduations and the families and friends who helped the graduates along their way

The ways we learn from one another so that we are all stronger and wiser

New life, renewed health, new jobs, new ways of being in community

God's abiding presence of comfort, care, challenge, and growth

Prayers for:

All people who are separated from loved ones during times of illness and of celebration

Dublin OhioHealth and all hospitals: prayers for staff, patients, and families

Dublin Retirement Village and all senior living facilities, for the residents, the staff and the families and friends who cannot visit in person

Those in prisons, which have become hot spots for COVID-19

Patience, kindness, resilience, and good decisions as we slowly begin to rebuild that which has been disrupted by the pandemic

All persons facing job loss or job insecurity

Tom Solomon, who had ankle replacement surgery this past week

Continued healing for Roberta Coup as she recovers from hip surgery at her sister's

Hunter Hughes, the 8-month old grandson of Greg and Joyce Kirstein, who has profound hearing deficit, and for his parents as they make decisions

Prayers of Comfort and Care for:

The family and friends of Nancy Krieger, Tim Krieger's mother, who died May 25 from COVID-19.

The family and friends of Terry Beard, Dena and Bill Patton's brother-in-law, who died May 24 from complications related to pancreatic cancer

Megan Brenner, sister-in-law of Marti and Mark Brenner, whose mother, Rhonda Guddy, died unexpectedly on May 18; prayers for Megan and her father as they struggle with their grief

The family and friends of Dick Smith, Jim and Sue Weaver's brother-in-law, who died this past weekend.
