

Praises and Prayer Requests for the Week of October 25, 2020

Praises for:

Jesus' "road map" to "the good life" in the Beatitudes, and praises for those who "hunger and thirst for righteousness," who do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8)

Pastor Jeff and all who have worked hard through the pandemic to be able to share worship with the entire congregation.

The beauty of autumn

Celebrate the life of: Nancy Davidson, Bev Steynberg's aunt, who died Fri., Oct. 16

Prayers for:

The safety of students and teachers who are returning to schools in person

Leaders, local, state, national, and worldwide; prayers for leadership to align with God's kingdom values

All who face the great stress of loss of jobs and financial difficulties; all who face loneliness and isolation, depression, and anxiety about the future

Dublin OhioHealth and all hospitals: prayers for staff, patients, and families; prayers for medical staff at all hospitals that continue to be impacted by COVID-19

All who suffer domestic violence in all of its forms; prayers for increased awareness during October, Domestic Violence Awareness month

The Mastin family: Tom's sister Jan: prayers that she is able to tolerate the side effects of the chemo so that she can keep receiving treatment; the husband of a good friend of Mary Jo's, who is suffering from Alzheimer's; prayers also for Mary Jo's friend, who is isolated more so than ever because of the pandemic

Beth Markowitz, friend of Julie Andrews, a single mom of two teenagers who is having surgery on Wednesday for a mass in her brain; prayers for Beth, her family and friends, and the doctors & nurses who will be treating her; prayers also that the surgery is without complications and that Beth recovers quickly.

Darrell Fletcher, who will undergo two-stage surgery of knee revision and eradication of staph infection on Oct. 27th; prayers for Julie also

A family member of Brent and Pat Dutcher who has long struggled with addiction and homelessness and is hospitalized after a serious accident; prayers for God to help him with both physical and mental issues

Tom Fletcher, who is recovering from hip surgery at The Forum; prayers also for Chlois

Prayers of Comfort for: the family and friends of Nancy Davidson